STRATEGIC ADVANTAGE

Situated just north of the Calgary city limits, within the thriving Balzac region of Rocky View, Rosemont Industrial Park stands as a prime location for diverse industrial, distribution, and logistics tenants. Offering a range of single and multi-tenant building configurations, this 146-acre first-class industrial development is strategically positioned to serve as a key distribution hub for Western Canada.

Boasting exceptional connectivity, Rosemont Industrial Park provides unparalleled access to rail and air transportation, seamless integration with national highway systems, and close proximity to the U.S. border—facilitating swift and efficient transportation from Calgary throughout North America.

Renowned companies such as Amazon, TJX, Home Depot, Walmart, Campbell's Foods, Sysco Foods, Lowe's, Sobey's, and Gordon Foods have already recognized the advantages of the area, establishing their distribution centers here. Balzac has emerged as Western Canada's newest powerhouse for e-commerce fulfillment and warehouse distribution, making it an ideal locale for businesses seeking optimal operational efficiency and strategic positioning.

TAX ADVANTAGE

Businesses in Rocky View County benefit from substantial tax savings as compared to the City of Calgary. The projected tax differential for a proposed 500,000 square foot building in Calgary versus Rocky View County is currently estimated at approximately $1.27 per square foot per year. This translates to a minimum average savings of $636,000 annually, or a remarkable $6.4 million over the course of a 10-year term.

Rosemont Industrial Park stands in an ideal location within the Balzac distribution hub, strategically positioned to provide crucial access to customers, staff, and vital transportation routes essential for long-term success. Positioned just minutes away from Calgary to the south, Rosemont Industrial Park offers direct connectivity to Alberta's premier urban center and beyond, facilitated by the well-connected Stoney Trail ring road, Deerfoot Trail, and the QE2 and Trans-Canada highways. Elevate your business with an esteemed address at Rosemont Industrial Park—a strategic choice ensured to elevate your business presence and facilitate growth.
